

Three Days

1. Three Days our world was broken; the Lord of life lay dead.
“Take up your cross,” he told us who followed where he led.
Would we now hang in torment with thieves on every side, our Passover shattered or hope crucified? Three days we hid in silence.
In bitter fear and grief. Three Days we clung together where he had washed our feet.

2. Three days—and on the third day, the women came at dawn.
His tomb, they said, was empty, his broken body gone.
Who could believe their story? The dead do not arise, yet he walks among us, and with our own eyes we’ve seen him at this table, we’ve shared his bread and wine.
Hearts burning bright within us, we’ve seen his glory shine.

3. Three days our world was broken and in an instant healed,
God’s covenant of mercy in mystery revealed. Two thousand Years are one day in God’s eternal sight, and yesterday’s sorrows
Are this day’s delight. Though still Christ’s body suffers, pierced
Daily by the sword, yet death has no dominion: the risen Christ
Is Lord!

As Grains of Wheat

From lives apart we bring our hearts to make one whole.

For many are we, and broken we've come,
But we shall become one.

2. Each grain must fall and give itself: it first is broken then, joined with others, makes one body and one bread.

Ref.

3. From many fields the harvest comes to feed the hungry:
The world cries out to taste the goodness of the Lord.

4. Your harvest Lord, is gathered in; we stand before You
To be your bread, to be your body in the world.

Praise Him with joy, ye Cherubim!
